It Physically, Doctor Says

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — The modern American can't take it, Dr. C. H. McCloy of the University of Iowa, told a recent meeting of the association for physical and mental rehabilitation.

In fact, the average person who works is go out of shape psysically that when the week-end arrives he has to take time off to rest up, says Dr. McCloy, although he admits fewer people get sick today.

"Americans seem to specialize in getting out of shape," the professor asserted. "Twenty years too soon they get down to the point where they don't have much life."

He believes a person 70 years old should be able to do a day's work if it is not too strenuous without feeling exhausted.

Even doctors ignore the importance of the annual physical examination, he said, adding:

"I'll bet that if you asked 10,000 doctors if they had a check-up last year, only 5 per cent of them could say they had."

Conducting research on physical education at the University of Iowa, Dr. McCloy said exercise is important in that "while it does not prolong life, it raises the quality of living."

Truman Collects 32 Year Old Debt on Western Tour

BURLINGTON, Iowa — President Truman collected a 32-year-old debt on his recent nation-wide tour.

Elmer Van Tine, an employee of the Iowa ordanance plant in Burlington, borrowed $25 from the President after the armistice in 1918 so he could make a trip to Kansas City to join the Shrine with Mr. Truman.

When the President's special train stopped at Burlington on the nation-wide tour, Van Tine came aboard and handed Mr. Truman a check for $50, explaining that half of it was interest.

The President accepted the check and told Van Tine: "Thank you. You didn't have to do this."

Van Tine was a cook in the President's World War I company.

Truthfulness Doesn't Pay Off for Chicken Thief

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — Matthew Simpson, 30, found that persistence and truthfulness, long considered virtues, did not pay off for him.

Hailed into court, he admitted taking the same automobile from the same parking lot twice within four days. He also was charged with using the car in the theft of 30 chickens from Mrs. P. J. Roaza.

"That's not true, your honor," he said. "It was only 28, honest."

Simpson drew a two to four year term in the workhouse.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
Ought To "Polish Up" Her Traffic Manners!
Spent most of yesterday over at the Court House. "Tiny" Fields, the biggest and fastest-talking of our three policemen, was holding forth about his traffic troubles.
"Women drive just as good as men do," Tiny said, "and just as bad. For instance—a girl in a convertible today. She started a three-block tie-up all by herself.
"She's creeping down Main Street—left hand stuck out and sort of waving around. Never turns right or left, never stops. But, of course, everyone behind her thinks she's signaling about something. Nobody dares to pass. When I stop her and ask what's up, she smiles sweetly and explains that she's drying her nail polish!"
From where I sit, that girl's typical of certain folks who are so wrapped up in themselves, they never notice they're not being fair to others. Our neighbor has a right to drive in safety—just as he has a right to enjoy a glass of beer. Let's all respect the other fellow's rights.
